

Louisville Ky. June 24. 20.

Dear Professor: —

Today I received a large envelope from you which was open. I shall therefore give you a list of the contents, I hope nothing is missing. (The envelope you sent last time, was badly torn, though I don't think anything dropped out)

- 1) 12 photos on post cards
- 2) 3 small photos & one large one (girl on horse)
- 3) 1 half-tone illustr. in "The Ind. School Journal".
- 4) 3 sheets drawings of shields etc. in lead pencil.
- 5) one letter,
- 6) one copy "Woman's City Club" addressed to my sister.

(This last exhibit was probably placed in your envelope by the letter-man).

Many thanks for the photos inscribed with my name. Would it be possible to get duplicates of the cards showing Ind. horses? Some of them are by J. V. Derriks. If you could find out about this I would be much obliged.

I must not forget to <sup>add to</sup> the above list:

- 7) Ms. of Chap. 4.

This chapter certainly furnishes material for any number of illustrations. I have already selected
