

Louisville Ky. Aug. 4. 20
No 1227 Bardtown Road.

Dear Professor :-

You probably have been waiting for the illustrations for the last few chapters which I promised to send in my last letter.

Since it will be necessary to get at least a few illustrations for the first chapters ready so that they can be sent with your MS. or soon thereafter, I have decided rather to get the latter illustr. into final shape and wait with the last chapters till later.

I am now working under great difficulties because the interruptions of my work are becoming more & more frequent, due to our removal. We shall vacate the house in about two weeks from now.

The new address is:

No 1970 Deer Park,
Louisville, Ky.

In one of your last letters you mention your intention to write notes, presumably in an appendix to your book. I think that is an excellent idea. Probably every book on a