Dear Professor: -

After next Wednesday, Aug. 25. my address will be

→ No 1970 Deer Park
Louisville Ky.

We have been moving, or rather getting our belongings ready to be moved & have been carting large quantities of them into our new home for several days.

I had to stop working on my illustrations last Friday & hope to resume work on them about next Friday.

As I am the only man in our family & as both my sister & her mother are not in good health, the major part of this work falls to my lot.

Enclosed you will find, I think, all the remaining drawings for my pen- & ink illustrations which you have not yet seen. In case I have overlooked any, please let me know.

These drawings will give you a reliable idea of the facts I wish to record in them but not of the shape in which they will appear technically. Especially the final vignette (the burial
