

6
"When Buffalo Ran" ("A true story of Indian life before it was influenced in any way by the white man")
Yale University Press, New Haven Conn. $2.50

and finally:

"The American Indian Magazine" Aug. 1920
published by the Society of Am. Indians.

Beautifully illustrated with many fine photos.
Articles by Walter Hough, Stewart Udell, Clark Wissler (on the Indian horse illus. with photos of Ind. Saddles & bridles from the Am. Mus. Nat.
History) and others.

I can unreservedly recommend to subscribe to this magazine at once! Address:

"The American Indian Magazine"
711 Twentieth Str. N.W.
Washington D. C.

$2.50 per year. single copies 25¢

There is a chance for you to write articles (which must be ethnographically correct but presented in a form to be appreciated by the general reader).

I shall let you know as soon as I am through with my pen-&-ink work. Would it not be advisable to submit your Ms. with these drawings & wait with the rest until the publisher accepts the Ms.?

Yours very truly
Frederick Wygod