Dear Professor: -

I have just sent by Am. Ry. Express to Editorial Office, George H. Doran Co. 244 Madison Ave. New York City a package containing:

- 1) Your MS. (in the ^{inner} package as received).
- 2) 9 pen-ink drawings for Chapter heads
- " " " " " " " " Tail-pieces.

3) One sketch for the book cover.

I have sent the package prepaid, value $200.00.

I am afraid I have tried your patience to the utmost & the only excuse I can offer for the long delay is this:

1) I was determined to do absolutely the best piece of work I could possibly do at the present stage of my ability.

2) I discovered in the last moment that I had no design for a book cover. There was danger that the publisher would (in case of acceptance) have a cover design made by one of the designers who make a specialty of that sort of thing. I therefore made a design myself of which I shall send you a tracing.

The work as a whole (I mean all the drawings)
