

I just happen to remember that you mentioned at one time that a missionary on the Crow agency, Montana has been making good photos of those Indians. Have you got any of those? If so, please send a few along when you return my photos for a brief inspection.

Please let me also know whether you ever got the colored sketches (oil paintings) which I made for advertising H. H. G. and sent to a book store somewhere in Oklahoma. I think there were four of them.

very truly yours

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Frederick Weygold". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the typed name. A long, thin horizontal line is drawn above the signature, starting from the left and ending under the 'd'.
