Mr. Frederick Weygold,

Dear Weygold:

Thanks very much for your letter of the 16th and for the information it contains. Most of the books you mentioned I have been digging into lately. But I should be very glad to get Wissler's book, if you would send it to me. Also the photographs of the warriors who fought with Red Cloud. Please send things to me by express collect, addressed

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA
W.S.CAMPBELL

NORMAN OKLAHOMA. This expedites receipt, whereas a package addressed to me c/ University causes delay and expense.

Red Cloud certainly would make a splendid subject. He was no doubt a greater warrior than Sitting Bull: but I am interested in Sitting Bull as the type of primitive intellectual- something new in literature. And SB is quite enough for me to tackle just now.

A Mr. Sheldon of Lincoln Nebraska (Hist Socy) has a life of Red Cloud almost ready for the press now, he writes. I gave him your name as a probable illustrator. But I fancy he is an old fogey of a local historian, and suspicious of everybody. He would not tell me a thing. Have you seen Doane Robinson's history of the Sioux? It is in the South Dakota Hist. Coll.

Thanks for your continued interest and help.

As ever

W S Campbell

PS I am interested to see that you are lecturing. Hop to it.

According to yours of Dec. 21 you want the book to amount.
