

the red band embroidered in quilt on the front flap, it symbolizes many hand-to-hand fights. And the silver peace medal given to him personally by President Grant in 1872 during his visit in Washington.

Red Cloud posed especially for me & had himself carried out & dressed up from his bed of rage. He was totally blind and almost deaf and paralyzed in both legs. Two minutes later he collapsed & we carried him back into his tent where he died two months later (Sept. 1909).
