

March 13, 1929.

Mr. Frances J. Audet,
Public Archives of Canada,
Ottawa, Canada.

Dear Sir:

Since I wrote you November 16 regarding my research on the life of Sitting Bull and his career in Canada I have done a good deal of reading. It appears that I must consult the records of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. Can you refer me to the proper officer or department to which I should make application for the privilege of running over these records?

I should also be very grateful for any suggestions as to any books or other records which might aid me in my study of the history of Saskatchewan in the late 70's and 80's. Thanking you for past favors, I remain

Sincerely yours,

W. S. Campbell.