for even to this detail, he kept his word with the Mounted Police, knowing that if he did otherwise he would stir up trouble.

Before taking my word as the truth, I would advise you to write to the Northwest Mounted Police Veterans' Association, at Vancouver, and make the same enquiry as you did to me. I know most of the veterans of that time very well, and everyone of them has spoken very highly of Sitting Bull in this particular respect. As for the Indian side, I think I can with reasonable certainty assure you that he did not make any such overtures as those which you enquired about.

Again I would advise you to get hold of the above Cosmopolitan for further information. I was with Chauncey Yellow Robe when he received a letter from you. I do not know whether he answered it or not, but, as you know, he is Sitting Bull's nephew.

With hopes that you will succeed in getting out a good book,

Sincerely yours,
