Dear Sir;

Replying to your favor of 8th July last, I regret that this has not been answered sooner, but I have been away on a holiday.

For the moment I can not think of anyone of our veterans now living that could write the particulars re Sitting Bull.

There are a couple of books in which the information you want could be found, namely "Corporal Cameron" by Ralph Connor, and Policing the Plains by Revd Dr R. G. Macbeth. The latter has two chapters entitled "Handling American Indians". I think you could obtain these from any Canadian bookseller, or from Ireland & Allan Booksellers Vancouver, B.C

Am very pleased to hear from you and wish you every success.
With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours

Business manager.
