

for n only moving to attack Ft. Stephenson, before Sandusky, + intending to go on down the Maumee + then along lakeshore to fort, but Dabotos deserted at river mouth + went on to Detroit - all but 16 men + Little Crow - other Indians fled

∴ British lost fleet + Amherstburg + Detroit, +
Gen Proctor's ^{surrendered} army (according to Dickson) -

Waueta won glory in fight -

Went west in fall -

Little Crow remained pro-British Wapasha on fence - + one of his bands (Fireleaf) was openly pro-Amer - until its chief shot at court martial, when he was suddenly converted + gave up flags + medals - + begged Brit. soldiers to protect them -

Manuel Wisa kept Mo. River Dabotos threatening the Eastern Dabs - but no hostilities -

Amen built Fort Shelly at Prairie des Chien British took it, named it Ft. McKay -

War distracted Indians + so destroyed fur trade for the time - Peace

At last the British burned fort + pulled out -