Division of General Reference and Bibliography

May 13, 1947

Dear Mr. Campbell:

Your letter of April 19, 1947 has been referred to the General Reference and Bibliography Division for attention and reply.

The Library of Congress has made no bibliographical compilations on the Apache Indians. Because we are unable to undertake such a work at this time, we can only suggest a few recent studies which include fairly extensive bibliographical notes.

We mention the following:

Lockwood, Frank C. Apache Indians. New York, Macmillan, 1938.
348 p.

Bibliographies at ends of chapters.

Ogle, Ralph H. Federal control of the western Apaches, 1848-1886. Albuquerque, University of New Mexico press, 1940.
260 p.

Bibliography: p. 246-255.

Opler, Morris E. An Apache life-way; the economic, social and religious institutions of the Chiricahua Indians. Chicago, University of Chicago press, 1941. 500 p.

"Selected bibliography": p. 481-482.

----- Myths and tales of the Chiricahua Apache Indians. New York, 1942. 114 p. (Memoirs of the American folk-lore society, v. 37, 1942)

Bibliography: p. 112-114.

Very truly yours,

Robert C. Gooch
