

December 16, 1936

Indian General

Mr. Reginald Leubin
"Cadaho"
Colchester, Connecticut

Dear Mr. Leubin:

Thanks for your letter. I met Tahan years ago in Oklahoma and rejoice that he is still alive. It may be that a good literary agent such as Jacques Chambrun, 745 Fifth Avenue, New York City, might be able to place his book for him, especially since he has published one already. The Houghton Mifflin Co., 2 Park Street, Boston, have published several of my books and have a very good Western list. If Tahan wishes to try them, they have a New York office. If Tahan wishes, I could drop them a line. Please let me know.

I have been trying to wangle funds to go to the Sitting Bull country next summer myself. I hope you succeed in your plans.

Very cordially yours,

W. S. Campbell