My dear Dr. Campbell:

May I trouble you with a question? Do you happen to have made any phonograph records of Indian Music (or Primitive Music or Folk-Music)? And if so, how many, from what tribe or group, how many per tribe in case more than one tribe is represented, and, are they in your private possession, or deposited with some Institution?

I am taking the liberty of addressing you in following a suggestion of Dr. Leslie Spier. I am interested in these questions because I am compiling for publication in one of our Anthropological journals a list of all such collections in the U.S.A. Of course, if you should have any such records, I would be eager to include them on my list.

I am hoping that my inquiry is not too much of an imposition on your time. Let me thank you in advance for your kind assistance.

Yours very truly,

George Herzog
