

to me.

We had a picture of my father, taken in the Adirondack region, resting on a log with a park basket on & his gun beside him, which I alternated calling Jim Bridger and Nat Foster -

My only regret in reading "Jim Bridger" is, my father is not here to enjoy it too, but he owned some of your former books - which he read and re-read -