

again as they had made up their minds to fight the whites as long as they lasted and consequently burned up their former homes killed all their cattle and burned all the hay they had, and now that peace has been restored they are suffering very much - to add to the misery, the snow is very deep - to see the Indian camped as in early life does one good. they are camped in the Bad Lands. It would make you feel good to see them. It is possible that they will give Kicking Bear his dance back to him again.
Bear has in mind keep your ears open this way I say this to you on the quiet My heart shakes hands with you Cousin.

It is me,

Laurence Inductious,

Blikeca

(On back:

copy of letter of March 4/91. From Laurence Inductious Pine Ridge Agency to One Bull Standing Rock Agency, Recd March 20/91.)