

October 31, 1947

Superintendent
Shoshone and Arapaho Agency
Fort Washakie, Wyoming

Dear sir:

Here I am to trouble you again. One more word, which I suppose may be a Shoshone word, needs interpretation. I shall be most grateful if you can include it along with the others.

It was the name of a horse belonging to one of the early fur trappers in that country about 100 years ago, and is spelled Too Shebit.

If this approximates any Shoshone word, I shall be most grateful if you can let me have the translation.

Cordially yours,

W. S. Campbell

WSC:ff