

Croob promises that bonies shall be paid for - well recommended
it - (jolly speech - much laughter)

~~if~~

'Now I have understood that there have been some threats made against the lords who signed this Bill. You need not be alarmed, because those people will not be allowed to interfere with you. And if any damage or injury is done to those who have signed, we will ask to have it paid for the nation of those who have not signed, so there must be no trouble!

-- now the tables will be moved down here + those who want to sign can do so.

Mered Ben - apologized for not signing last year, asks copies of the treaty for lords -

Gras - boundary line must be surveyed

X Way Nebluce nations + boundaries -

Sitting Bull I wd like to say something unless you object to my speaking, + if you do I will not speak. He was told us of the council "(of this day)" and we just got here!

Croob (to MCH) Did you know that we were going to hold a council?
MCH - yes sir. Every body knew it.
