

Letter to

Longhand

Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior,
Washington DC

Sir,
I am in receipt of a communication from Sitting Bull dated Fort Yale, Dakota, in which he expresses a strong desire to travel through the East with me during the summer.

As I am not acquainted with the routine of procedure in such affairs, I address you in the hope that you will further his desire in the matter. I have had a long experience in the Management :
