Fetterman Massacre

My saw Col's order, Sample kicks away &
race to Fort -

Jan 2, sent written message:

"Peno valley ~~was~~ full of Indians, that several hundred were on the road below, & westward, yelling & challenging him to come down to battle, but that nothing could be seen of Fetterman."

The evening gun fired as usual - no one went - until they heard crunch of wagon wheels in snow at site

49 looked to hospital (Scurry
"no more were to come in")

"probably not a man of F's command survived."
