

down the street. This little story may give another slant on my brother, from what one would expect from reading only of his career as scout, plainsman and commander.*

*The Fighting Norths and Pawnee Scouts, by Robert Bruce, Nebr. State Historical Society, Lincoln, Nebr., 1932. p. 65.
