NATIONAL CONGRESSMEN AID THE INDIAN EXPOSITION

JED JOHNSON

JED JOHNSON

Congressman

Sixth District of Oklahoma

Jed Johnson has been a most active supporter for the Indians. He has extended untiring efforts at seeking funds for Indian promotion. His deep personal interest in Indian affairs in his district is most appreciated Jed has helped immeasurably with moving pictures, statistics and information relative to Indian matters.

THE HON. ELMER THOMAS

-OKLAHOMA'S SENIOR SENATOR

Now chairman of the Indian Affairs committee in the United States Senate and one of the best friends the Indians have in the national halls of government. Senator Thomas has lived near the plains Indians many years and understands their needs.

THE HON. JOSH LEE

-OKLAHOMA'S JUNIOR SENATOR

Senator Lee has cooperated with the Indian programs in every manner. He, like the senior senator, is well acquainted with the Indians of Oklahoma, and is active in their support.

ELMER THOMAS