

Year Ended June 30, 1901, Indian Affairs: Report of the Commissioner and Appendices, 2 vols., (Washington, 1902), vol. 1, p. 315; From 1901 to 1907 leases totaling 4,353 were submitted to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. These leases covered slightly more than 471,000 acres and the total becomes significant when it is seen that the Cheyenne and Arapahoes possessed 518,240 acres in their allotments during this period. See Cornett, "Leasing and Utilization of Lands of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians," p. 270.

40. George W. H. Stouch (Cheyenne and Arapaho Agent) to Superintendent of Red Moon School, Hammon, Oklahoma Territory, February 23, 1900, C & A Letterbooks vol. 86, pp. 376-378; Stouch to Superintendent Red Moon School, March 9, 1900, ibid., vol. 87, pp. 73-76.

41. F. E. Leupp (Commissioner of Indian Affairs) to Stouch, August 26, 1905, Cheyenne and Arapaho Land Sales File, in Indian Archives, Oklahoma Historical Society, Oklahoma City, Okla. Stouch to Commissioner of Indian Affairs, September 5, 1902, C & A Letterbooks, vol. 116, pp. 414-416.

42. Annual Report of the Department of Interior, Indian Affairs, 1902, vol. 1, p. 64.

43. Woodson to United States Attorney, Guthrie, Oklahoma Territory, July 31, 1895, C & A Letterbooks, vol. 51, pp. 175-176; Woodson to Richard Davis (Additional Farmer, Arapaho, O. T.), May 4, 1895, ibid., vol. 55, p. 255; Woodson to Caleb R. Brooks (United States Attorney, Guthrie, O. T.), May 20, 1896, ibid., vol. 62, pp. 39-41.

44. Stouch to McKnight, June 11, 1903, C & A Letterbooks, vol. 113, pp. 312-313; Stouch to Horace Speed, (United States Attorney, Guthrie, O. T.), August 2, 1905, ibid., vol. 128, pp. 329-332.

45. Woodson to Commissioner of Indian Affairs, August 21, 1893, C & A Letterbooks, vol. 38, pp. 20-21; Woodson to Commissioner of Indian Affairs, November 4, 1893, ibid., vol. 38, pp. 145-147.

46. For activities of district farmers see Cheyenne and Arapaho Farmers File, in Indian Archives, Oklahoma Historical Society, Oklahoma City, Okla.

47. Woodson to Dennis T. Flynn (Territorial Delegate to Congress), February 6, 1896, C & A Letterbooks, vol. 49, 289-292; Stouch to Fowler Grocery Company, El Reno, Oklahoma Territory,