

1 of any civil or criminal process of any court having jurisdic-
2 tion over any person found therein.

3 (i) To exercise any other powers now or hereafter
4 delegated to the Office of Indian Affairs, or any officials
5 thereof, to contract with governmental bodies of State or 6 Nation for the reception or performance of public services,
7 and to act in general as a Federal agency in the adminis-
8 tration of Indian affairs, upon the condition, however, that 9 the United States shall not be liable for any act done, suf-
10 fered to be done, or omitted to be done by a chartered
11 Indian community.

12 (j) To exercise any other powers, not inconsistent
13 with the Constitution and laws of the United States, which 14 may be necessary or incidental to the execution of the 15 powers above enumerated.

16 An Indian community chartered under this Act shall 17 be recognized as successor to any existing political powers
18 heretofore exercised over the members of such community
19 by any tribal, or other native political organizations com-
20 prised within the said community, not withheld by such 21 tribal or other native political organization, and shall, sub-22 ject to the terms of said charter, further be recognized as 23 successor to all right, interest, and title to all funds, property,
24 choses in action, and claims against the United States
25 heretofore held by the tribes or other native political organ-
