

1 order or veto, if so provided within the charter, or, in any 2 event, by legal process in any court of competent jurisdic-
3 tion, all provisions contained in a charter for the protection
4 of the rights of minorities within the community, all pro-
5 visions therein contained for the conservation of the resources
6 of the community, and all other provisions that limit, qualify,
7 or restrict the powers granted to the community.

8 SEC. 10. The Secretary of the Interior may, upon 9 granting a charter to an Indian community, convey or con-
10 firm to such community, as an agency of the Federal Gov-
11 ernment, any right, interest, or title in property which may 12 be held by the United States in trust for members of the 13 community, and in any lands, buildings, or equipment pre-14 viously used by the United States in the administration of 15 Indian affairs within the community, and in any liens or 16 credits of the United States held by virtue of loans to or 17 expenditures on behalf of Indian members of the said com-
18 munity.

19 SEC. 11. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as 20 rendering the property of any Indian community or of any 21 member of such community subject to taxation by any 22 State or subdivision thereof, or subject to attachment or 23 sale under legal process, or as an expression of intent on 24 the part of the United States to abandon the duties and
