4 judicial circuits and at such places as said court may from 5 time to time designate. The authority of the court may be 6 exercised either by the full court or by one or more judges 7 duly assigned by the court to sit in a particular locality or 8 to hold a special term for a designated class of cases.

9 SEC. 3. The Court of Indian Affairs shall have original
10 jurisdiction as follows:

11 (1) Of all prosecutions for crimes against the United 12 States committed within the territory of any Indian reserva-
13 tion or chartered Indian community, whether or not com-
14 mitted by an Indian;

15 (2) Of all cases to which any Indian tribe or chartered
16 Indian community is a party;

17 (3) Of all cases at law or in equity arising out of 18 commerce with any Indian tribe or community or members 19 thereof, wherein a real party in interest is not a member of 20 such tribe or community;

21 (4) Of all cases, civil or criminal, arising under the 22 laws or ordinances of a chartered Indian community, wherein 23 a real party in interest is not a member of such community;

24 (5) Of all actions at law or suits in equity wherein 25 the pleadings raise a substantial question concerning the
