2 terminated, reserving, however, to such district courts com-
3 plete jurisdiction over all pending suits and over all pro-
4 ceedings ancillary or supplementary thereto.

5 SEC. 5. The Court of Indian Affairs may order the 6 removal of any cause falling within its jurisdiction as above
7 set forth, from any court of any State or any Indian com-
8 munity in which such cause may have been instituted.

9 SEC. 6. The Court of Indian Affairs shall have juris-
10 diction to hear and determine appeals from the judgment
11 of any court of any chartered Indian community in all cases
12 in which said Court of Indian Affairs might have exercised
13 original jurisdiction.

14 SEC. 7. The procedure of the Court of Indian Affairs
15 shall be determined by rules of court to be promulgated by 16 it, existing statutes regulating procedure in courts of the 17 United States notwithstanding. Such rules shall regulate 18 the form and manner of executing, returning, or filing writs,
19 processes, and pleadings; the removal of causes specified
20 in section 5; the taking of appeals specified in section 6; 21 the joinder of parties and of causes of action, legal and 22 equitable; the interposition of defenses and counterclaims,
23 legal and equitable; the raising of questions of law before
24 trial; the taking of testimony by examination before trial
25 and other proceedings for discovery and inspection; the
