Dear Mr. Norman: -
Your letter of July 17th was overlooked because of my hasty departure to assist a my brother to harvest his wheat crop in Montana. Now returning on the 21st and going thru my mail here run across your letter, therefore am answering it forthwith.
I do not have any negatives of Ho!
Battle of Kildar Mountain neither of Baker's fight.

I have negatives of all the other scenes and can furnish you prints when I can get them made up.
My brother at Hardin Montana makes up all my prints and I must await his convenience in making them up.

Please let me hear from you in regard to same. However I have no slaps of these scenes therefore cannot assist you in this regard.

Trust I may be of service to you,
Sincerely, Emil Kopac
