

The National Archives

Washington, D. C.

March 12, 1947

Mr. W. S. Campbell
The University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma

My dear Mr. Campbell:

This is in reply to your letter of March 4, 1947, addressed to Mrs. Pendell, concerning the casualties at the Battle of the Washita, November 27, 1868.

The muster roll of the 7th U.S. Cavalry covering the period of the battle shows the following casualties:

	Maj. Joel H. Elliott - killed
	Sgt. Maj. Walter Kennedy - killed
Co. A	Capt. Louis H. Hamilton - killed Bvt.Lt.Col. T.W. Custer - slightly wounded Cpl. Eastwood - slightly wounded Pvt. Gales - slightly wounded
Co. B	Pvt. Charles Luddy - killed Pvt. Augustus DeLarcy - wounded
Co. C	None
Co. D	None
Co. E	Cpl. Harry Musser - killed Pvt. John McCleman - killed Pvt. Thomas Christie - killed Pvt. Joseph Greene - wounded Pvt. Patrick Mopre - wounded
Co. F	Pvt. William Brown - slightly wounded in left arm
Co. G	None