

Times

March 23, 78

SCARCITY OF PRIVATES.

Recruiting for the regular army is going on briskly, and it is thought that in time there may be as many as one private for each officer thus doing away in a great measure with the existing hardships of army life, many subalterns being now obliged to black their own boots.--(Chicago Tribune.