

It was coming straight to them so they set behind some rocks and pines. The wind was from the east and the elk was coming from the west he passed about a fair as from he to W.B.'s house. W.B. was to shoot first they both hit him. Soon as he shot him he look at the end of the barrel and there was blood on it. Bull was the same way. If you get a elk in the hand the guns will get that way. The elk started to run but kept slowing down and he died in the bottom.

It was ~~at~~ the time when the leaves were getting yellow, at the end of the moon they got on their horse and went down there and suckled the elk they took every thing they started home (there was thick timber River they see).
