a fire there they were going to camp and as they got closer they saw a man so they went on till midnight and went home the next day.

They never ~~got~~ found out who the man were.

a little while after someone report that enemy had been up on Tong Ct.

The Indians never sleep around the fire. when there is lots of them they are not afraid.

while they are in enemy country they build fire only in day time. They keep scouts all the time when they are taking

Badger Blood

W.B. said the Sioux looked in blood the ones that saw that they were going to be killed should wait all year W.B. would never look in the blood.
