

Class in Carpentry and Painting, Haskell Institute. C. Kaufman, teacher.
Government's Indian Exhibit, L. P. E.

Kindergarten Class: Miss Emma D. Johnson in charge. All Pimas. Names: Sivileana Anton, Philip Johnson, Joseph Blackwater, Frank Nelson, Felix Manuel, Lonson Cholla, Josie Roberts, Mary Thomas, (deceased), Nellie Arthur, Mabel Enos, Alice B. Juan, Annie Havier. One of the most popular of all exhibits. The class, on account of sickness, had to be sent home in August.

Fort Shaw School (Montana) sent a class of eleven girls to the school. This class did some excellent work in basket-ball and in our daily entertainments. They were nice girls and made a good record. Miss Crawford in charge.

A band of 40 pieces gave concerts twice daily on the plaza in front of the school building. This band is a very creditable musical organization, exceedingly popular and in constant demand at receptions and parties. Lem H. Wiley in charge.