Mt. John W. Coryile

Sir

I am directed by the Commanding officer to request you to please inform this office by what authority you keep a trading establishment at this Post.

It has been understood that the priviledge of trading was delagated to Mr. Vandemater and yourself by Mr. R. M. Johnson, the duly authorized trader, if so, please inform this office, whether either or both of you are principals simply selling by permission of Mr. Johnson and for a consideration or whether the latter has a proprietary right to all or any portion of the goods held for sale, acting in a subordinate capacity and acting in the matter of sales exclusively for him, in short please inform the commanding officer how much of the goods in your trading establishment belong to Mr. Johnson, as well as furnish a copy of the written articles of agreement made between Mr. Johnson, Mr. Vandmater and yourself, also the business name of the firm.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt. Servant
Thomas S. Wallace
