

July 12 - 1926 - 7 a.m.

Cool a.m. yet a fine day - all quiet & smooth - No news whatever so far as known -

Primary Election Aug 3. 1926.

July 13 - 1926 - 10 a.m.

Cloudy & dreary, some slight-rain a.m. No news of any moment - all quiet.
Some old 7th. at-home - worse than all the hells can possibly be - seemingly no end to the aggravation - Well I'll pass over it & soon and have some peace -

THIS R. M. A. & J. O. O.
N. S. & A. H. T. & W. D. O. & A. G. O.
of A. A. & O. T. -

I. W. O. D. C. A. H. T. A. T. T.
N. H. G. A. N. H. 2. G. H. O. S. I. P. W.
R. C. O. S. I. L. E. & T. W. O. T. A. - H. I. O. S. L. & N. H. O. P. H. T. T. R.
S. H. P. T. A. O. S. & O. S. O. 6. 5-7. W.
A. F. I. - N. H. W. A. P. B. I. & O. W.

Wednesday July 14th 1926 -

8 p.m.
The day extra fine, rather cool this a.m. No news from far or near -

Pet Davis moved into the Baptist parsonage this week - and now holds down one lot of my old Homestead, shown as Lot 3, Block 7, intended to become a part of & in Union town proper - but not yet.

The day passed all O.K. all quiet -