Oct 29 - 1926. 2 P.M.

Uneventful from the 22nd to date - Except yesterday, was Boddie's birth day - and he had cake at his home so Lulu advised me she was preparing for -

Oct 28 - 1926 -

To day gloomy weather, neither cold nor warm -

The 27th I went persimmon hunting on the branch, & returning sweated profusely - came home & shot my coat - & thereby catching cold - but to-day somewhat relieved - got the summons all O.K. from our milk woman's pasture day before yesterday the school had a play, & I was in it - Mrs. Gray & Lucille came - & Alice went with them to the Box Row -

Belle H. Scott -

Oct 30 - 26 - 1 P.M.

fine day indeed, a little crisp, cool - no local news -

I see from the press that Hale & Ramsey were convicted for killing an Ojibwa Indian, Roan, & punishment placed at life in the Pen -

I further see in the press killing at Sparrow Dam -
