

Monday NOV 7, 1926.
6²⁰ p.m.

Ever since the 4th last date the weather has been reasonably temperate - till to-day, exceedingly rough, raining during the day & very cold north wind -

No news of Nate - quiet since last Tuesday's landslide -

Last Friday we ordered grocery bill from K.C.
$15.00

My mother & Dad came over for a time but Jr.
alone -

Mr Smithers building us a chicken house -

This eve, a fine supper on ribs - from Town -
#

NOV 8 - 1926. Tuesday, 7²⁰ a.m.

Cool, quiet & still -

Been came by enroute to Muskogee in the Barto case again - he came before daylight for a coat -

Sun out in all its glory, phone from Dad last night, all well - Jr too is well - and no news from Tulsa - election news quiet & dull -

Some old 7 & 6 at home - as usual -

The above date is wrong it was or should have been NOV. 9, instead of the 8th -

NOV 9th 1926 - 7⁵⁰ p.m.

Tuesday -

Been just returned from Muskogee - failed to get Barto
