

Dec 17-26 - 12. M.

This day -
 next-to shortest day of 1926.
 Next-to longest night - All quiet - but a nasty blurred & uninviting day - The Press even dull in all lines -

As Dems announce in Congress, in Washington - A lame Duck assembly - and prospects looking for a call session of Congress -

Republicans seem to be in distress & unable to extricate themselves from the embarassment they have found themselves - And a

Presidential election just 2 years ahead -
 Short of able leaders -

The very class of people that need help cant get it -

Board and stock holders & dealers in the lead of their schemes at the surplus that seems on hand -

The man that makes all the money must wait - & stand out on the door step in the cold, snow & rain. Must wait - till others are provided for so they can continue to hold feet on desk, drink good whisky, smoke good cigars and enjoy life easily. Must be provided for at all costs - & to whomsoever it may hit:

Pension -
