

Miller informs me — and that he can give me all the information sought by me in June Henry Case.

No papers or news this day — all quiet & peace as seen in this burg —

Some one moved in at the chicken man's house just east of us — & they have a flock of chicks seemingly —

Boodie moved into his new home last Saturday, nearer to his work — will be here Sunday —

2-10-27- 1³⁰ p.m.
Thursday —

Moderately cool — some more snow — but now fast passing away —

The day & time extremely dull — & lonely am I. No one to converse with — or cheer me — & far away from any one of my friends — And I am unable to console myself on that acct.

Lonely am I — indeed —

An air fighter Dear —

An Indian, Cherokee Indign as it were — Weight 160 lbs —

Arms strong & might heavy on a chick —

His liking for good food and min. Am & Women boyishly intense.

Have on all the same.

Give me good & delicious food, Cream Wine & a beautiful woman then I am boyishly intense —
