

March 5. Cont -

Monday we move across the street -

No news from Vicin or elsewhere -

Letter to Mattie to day for Homing -

Day passed off fine -

March 6 - 1927 - 9 a.m.

This day opened fine, clear & just a little cool -

No news so far -

March 7, 1927 - 7 p.m.

The day passed fine and pleasant - all quiet, no news -

We didn't move from the Dickson house as one had arranged - but will remain for awhile at any rate -

Not a word of news from any source -

Phone from a prospective renter for the place, a feed merchant at Vicin - at $12.50 per Mo. To be taken on a day or two from date & a month's rent to come to Alicia -

Bodine's Phone # is 324 N. Anahnah -

March 8 - 1927 - 9 a.m.

This day opened fine, except usual March bluster from the north -

Promise of a fine day -