

March 24th 1927 - 12. m.

The day clear bright & cool - no news - all quiet -
 Boon & family with us yesterday & left for home after dark -
 No news to day - all quiet & peace -

Yesterday the 23rd quiet - no doing at all -

7<sup>45</sup> p.m.: Well the day the 24th has passed off fine indeed - Not even too much of a N Wind or any Wind - We are both doing reasonably well, considering all surroundings - No visitors at all this day -

Well I hope tomorrow will be just as fine as today - & announce the entry of 1927 Spring -

Some little work in progress, patching rent housing roofs - Such as they are - here - Some of them not fit for a horse barn, & rent from 10 to 25 dollars - per mo.

March 25 - 1927. 8 a.m.

The day opened fine, just a little foggy - Very quiet - So far no news & promise of a fine day & very little wind - the most quiet march for a long time - We are anxious to hear from the folks anywhere -
