The day passed off fine & very pleasant - just a little Cokel -

No visits to-day at all - no letters - every body digging in their gardens -

Sunday April 3, 1927. 9 a.m.

This day opened fine indeed, no stir at all, nor any news so far -

We go to Boodie's to-day, for the day -

The 2nd of April, received World daily from News boy for a week at 15 cts per week - also taking the Indian Magazine from Tulsa. Bood subscribed for me -

Boodie helps Mrs. Osborn & Ruth with her -

Boodie came & taken us to his home in Tulsa for dinner & a pleasant eve - with Mr. Luby, Jr. Mrs. Osborn & Ruth - & at 5:30 brought us home -

Had a delightful visit with him - at home no news for the day - quiet & serene -

April 4, 1927 - 7 a.m.

Nice morning - clear & only slightly cool - all quiet - apparently - no news so far - from any source -

Spring season seems to be here in all its sweetness & glory -
