

up to me that way - And another one just as bad, but was not displaying them so much - but could see the thing itself, in shape & location - the underpinnings very slender - indeed - but for audacity - our belle girl caps the fraternity - for show - except the horns show up in size to reasonable proportions -

One girl in N Town shows up well for decency - and she has legs for your whiskers, otherwise she is decent - & not intentionally showy - ~~April 18th~~ April 18th - 1927 7¹⁵ a.m.

This morning opened up hazy, cloudy & threat of snow rain - no news so far, & all quiet & peace.

Henry calls - noon -
No word from my parties as yet - on my request for $12.00 - after 9 p.m. Very threat - ing, heavy clouds, cold fierce wind - general disturbance of the air - no news to date from the press or otherwise - cloud for the 18th

~~4-19-27~~ 4-19-27 - 8³⁰ p.m.

This day extra fine - indeed but windy - Sun all day - no news / no visitors - Boodie will come tomorrow eve -

Henry Case.