

Mr. L. W. Brown, of Paper Oct. 2.
box 27

One letter of 1-20-27 - the the very kind of interest in a diary of events to see etc -

One of inquiry after one to thought of Washo post master, of Jan 31-1927 -

One of Nov 26-26 -

One of Nov 30-26

Franklin date -

In Ancient Times--

The seven wonders of the World.

- 1 The Pyramids of Egypt---<sup>2</sup>The Pharos of Alexandria---
- 3 The Walls and Hanging gardens of Babylon---
- 4 The Temple of Artemis at Ephesus---
- 5 The Statue of the Olympian Zeus by Phydias---
- 6 The ~~Mausoleum~~ Mausoleum erected by Artemisia at Hallicarmassus---The Colosus of Rhodes---

Well to know yet of no material benefit for the present generation--

<sup>7</sup>wise masters--- or 7 Sages, characters in an old collection of tales of this name, of eastern origin, with versions to many languages.

includes A young Prince having rejected improper advances of his his stepmother, she falsely accuses him to her husband, a who orders his death; the Princes instructors, seven sages each tells the King on successive days, a story which him to delay the execution, the Queen each night counter-acting the effect they have produced. At the end of the seven days, the Prince who has hitherto abstained from speaking, in obedience to the stars, tells a story which leads his father to put his Queen to-death---