

None captured - otherwise no news -
 This day passed out hot & sultry - peacefully -

June 18-27- Saturday - 8 p.m.
 Very warm, no news, Holiness Creed pitched their Tabernacle in front of the post office, for a protracted service - & Ebenezer-gush holds out at the High School Auditorium - but skin so said -

No news - day passed out fine - and quiet -

June 19-20 & 21 - 1927 - at night -

No news to date - 3 days - this eve the 21st Beard, Lulu & Jr. came for an eve visit; left for home just dark - Jr. had had a new-roasting ~~egg~~ car, & had the belly ache over the escapade - otherwise all well - this day passed off fine -

June 22-1927. 8 p.m.
 Extra fine day, no news, except one man killed on the Highway near Tulsa this A.M. Supposedly, was in a large Auto & as far as known alone.
 The day dry but the waters rising - no news at all - except as stated -

June 23rd - 27 -

Fine, Hot day, no news, except a boy Arrested of maus fell from an oil Derrick & killed -