

June 27-1927-Monday, 7 a.m.

The day opened nice, clear & bright - no news so far - all quiet.

Boodie & family returned home yesterday p.m. after a pleasant even visit.

Day before yesterday Darius Ward made a visit from Collinsville to Marissa and failed to visit me - showing his disposition towards me, of dislike and I suppose it runs through the family from all appearances.

June 28-27, Tuesday, noon.

This day fine moderately - no news from any source - clear & slight wind - visited a chicken yard this a.m. near the school building - all quiet & not a thing doing or a stirring - not a zipper astir this day - & no news of note or otherwise - Boodie & family came for an visit, we rode out towards Collinsville -

June 29-1927-8⁴⁵ p.m.

This day quiet - as a mouse - no news & plenty of travel on the Highway - tomorrow the last day of June - of the fiscal year - all quiet & peace - hereabouts -

June 30th 1927. 7 a.m.

Delightful a.m. clear, pleasant and quiet - so far no news - & all quiet around the Home - some old condition of silence & seeming discord -
