

Aleck's father was M Coy, died some 30 or 40 yrs since, from gunshot wound of the foot: by his work hand. Said by some to be accidental, but held by Alex to be intentional - Controversy over a horse -

M Coy was one among the prominent leaders of the Cherokee Nation - one of Chief Ross's right hand men & friends -

Both father & son were well to do - financially. Aleck was told Civilization struck him & he went down before it -

Uncle Jack Cookson - Hon Sevi - were the wealthiest men of their section - & Sam M Coy next, & as well as in m Cattle & farms as well as in money - X ~~##~~ X

Aug 13, 1927 - 8³⁰ A.M. Saturday
The day opened fine - and windy - & just warm enough for a pleasant day - all quiet & peace as far as known or heard -

Minnie & Lucile stopped in for a few minutes stay yesterday eve - apparently some push in Orasso on improvements in Town -

Late p.m. Bead & Jr came for a short stay - report Lulu sick -

The day passed, all quiet & peace - X ~~##~~ X

Aug 14, 1927 - 10 A.M. Sunday - fine day - no news at all.
too quiet for a thing -
