

Geo. W. Murrell —

195 Foot I —

Son in Law of Lewis Ross, residence at Park Hill, Cherokee Nation — just west of that of John Ross Cherokee Chief —

At this place Genl W. T. Anderson in 1862 made a speech to his Army
while enroute to his defeat in Ark
later — by Genl Schofield, Union Army —

9-17-27 contd from p. 33.

A fine day indeed — Saturday —
No news of note — all quiet —
Ma gone to Greenville for her repaired
fallen teeth —

Lulu appears very sick, & many predict that she has Cancer of the Stomach — probably so —
The day quiet — but very warm.

9-18-27 — 7 p.m.

all day quiet — yet quite cool
fall season weather —

Bodie didn't come today —
supposedly too cool, or Lulu not doing so well — as she is very sick —
no visitors at all —

9-19-27 — the day, a little windy
& cool — no news — quiet —
few days since Book Gray had stolen from him a set of harness —
from his barn —
