

Boods address in Tulsa now is - # 324 - N Quaker St.

Oct 1, 1927 - 4 p.m. Saturday - dreary wet day - no news at all - & no events since last entry, except the events at Tulsa, the fair, the oil meet & Lindbergh - all quiet & peace -

Much mud on the out ways - for travel - the fair continues Sunday - one day more -

This week letter from Mrs. Terrell - about the home - at Vian, not very encouraging -

THE STOLEN -

Mr. Dickson lost his fine chickens this week, stolen by a chick thief, & also Mr. Smithers lost some of his - our near neighbor -

In August, Charles A. Lindbergh flew from Roosevelt - field N.Y. to Paris France in 33 hours & a few minutes - in an airplane of his own make -

He came to Tulsa Friday Sept 30 - & left there for Little Rock Oct 1 - Brave boy - He and Clinton Roosevelt - killed in France war & are of same grit - for adventure and in war & one in peace -
